The Amman Stock Exchange Receives a Delegation from FinTech Department at Al- Zaytoonah University

June 02, 2025

On Monday 02/06/2025, the Amman Stock Exchange (ASE) received a student delegation from the Faculty of Business at Al- Zaytoonah University as part of a field visit to the Jordanian capital market institutions (Jordan Securities Commission, Amman Stock Exchange, Securities Depository Center), with the aim of reviewing the trading mechanism at the ASE, and learning about the latest developments and the nature of work of capital market institutions. The CEO of the ASE, Mazen Wathaifi, welcomed the delegation, stressing that the ASE seeks to strengthen its partnership with universities and enhance awareness, knowledge and culture in everything related to the national capital market and link the theoretical aspect with the practical aspect.

Where Dr. Malak Al-Jazazi, Chief of Communication and Public Relations Division at the ASE, explained of the nature of the ASE's work, in addition to the most important recent developments witnessed by the market and future projects. she also gave a live demonstration of the trading session and an explanation of the trading mechanism in the ASE and the most important features of the Electronic Trading System.

At the end of the meeting, the discussion was opened and the students ' questions and inquiries were answered about everything related to the Jordanian capital market institutions in general and the ASE in particular.