Amman Stock Exchange Receives a Student Delegation from the Faculty of Sharia at the University of Jordan

August 11, 2026

on Thursday, 06/08/2026 the Amman Stock Exchange (ASE) received a student delegation from the Islamic Banking Department at the Faculty of Sharia at the University of Jordan, as part of a field visit to the institutions of the Jordanian capital market (the Jordan Securities Commission and the Amman Stock Exchange), with the aim of gaining insight into the nature of the institutions' work and the trading mechanism on the ASE, learning about the services they provide and the legislation governing their operations, in addition to learning about the latest legislative and regulatory developments related to them.